

MADE TO MEASURE WINE EXPERIENCE AT ROCCA DI FRASSINELLO

Born from the only Franco-Italian joint venture in the field of wine, between Domini Castellare di Castellina and Domaines Barons de Rothschild-Lafite, Rocca di Frassinello is the first winery ever designed by the renowned Italian architect Renzo Piano. The winery is located in Maremma, on the southern coast of Tuscany, just one hour drive from Punta Ala and includes 500 hectares, 100 of which are planted.

Its production is that of an orchestra, in which every grape, from the Sangiovetto to the international Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah, plays a marvellous melody, amplified by the explosive notes of Baffonero, a grand Merlot in purity, selected by Wine Spectator among the top 5 red wines in the world.

Those who are seriously passionate about wine cannot miss the Made to Measure Wine Experience: a revolutionary concept by Rocca di Frassinello, born to go beyond any luxury, focusing on the wine making ritual to create your own blend based on your personality, imagination and intuition.

Mr Alessandro Cellai, one of the best oenologists in the world according to Wine Spectator, will personally guide you in this exclusive and memorable experience.

A barrique of your wine will be then bottled and shipped to you in 300 bottles dressed up with your personalized label to enjoy and share!
